Duties of the Anti-Ragging Squad

1. It is the responsibility of the designated individuals to maintain constant vigilance, exercise diligent oversight, and perform regular patrolling duties while remaining alert and active at all times.

2. Participate in implementing surprise inspections of hostels and other areas prone to incidents, particularly those at a higher risk of ragging.
3. When incidents of ragging are brought to their attention by the Head of the institution, conduct a thorough investigation and submit the inquiry report, including recommendations, for necessary actions.
