

ANTI-RAGGING

Anti-ragging involves a comprehensive set of measures and policies implemented by educational institutions to actively prevent, detect, and address any instances of ragging. These efforts ensure that all students can pursue their academic goals in a safe, respectful, and supportive environment, free from fear, harassment, or pressure. Anti-ragging initiatives also promote awareness, encourage positive relationships, and enforce strict disciplinary actions against those who violate these principles.